CENTRAL EXCISE COLLECTORATE

NOTIFICATIONS

Baroda, the 3rd September 1957

No. 2/1957—The power to relax the provisions of rule 51-A of Central Excise Rules 1944 rests with the Collector. Such relaxation to permit storage of duty paid goods in the excisable factories will be granted after the due consideration of the merits of each case and generally in the following cases:—

(a) When duty paid goods are returned to the factory for being remade, refined, reconditioned, or subject to any other similar process in the factory.

(b) When the factories intend to bring duty paid goods from outside or want to utilise the goods of their own manufacture after payment of duty for their use for industrial use in the factories premises.

(c) When after clearance on payment of duty the goods cannot immediately be removed from the factory on account of some unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the manufacturer like sudden break down of the carriers or non-availability of wagons etc.

(d) When the factory intends to bring into the licensed premises samples of duty paid good of its own manufacture as well as manufactured by others for inspection, comparison and/or test and redelivery thereafter.

(e) When the factories want to store some quantity of duty paid goods for retail sale to their employees, complimentary gifts etc.

2. So far as the question of storage of duty paid goods returned to the factory for the reasons stated at (a) above is concerned, this will be permitted under the following conditions:—

(i) at least 48 hours notice is given to the proper officer before the goods are received into the factory containing full particulars of the excisable goods to be re-entered.

(ii) the goods are presented before they are taken into stock to the proper officer for inspection and if necessary for taking samples.

(iii) as far as possible, the goods as originally issued from the factory are not found to have been tampered with in any way and the smallest package meant for retail sale are intact and unopened.

(iv) a detailed account of the returned goods and the processes to which they are subjected to after their return to the factory is kept by the factory in the following form:

An account of duty paid excisable goods received back to the factory for reprocessing, remarking etc.

I. RECEIPT

| Date | Description of goods | No. of packages | A.R. I No. and date under which originally cleared | Quantity |
|------|----------------------|-----------------|--|----------|
| 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| | | | | |

II. PARTICULARS OF PROCESSED OR RECONDITIONED GOODS

| date | nature of process | date processed | discription of processed goods | No. of packages if packed separately from other goods | Quantity | Remarks | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 |
|------|-------------------|----------------|--------------------------------|---|----------|---------|---|---|---|---|----|----|----|

3. So far as storage of duty paid goods for the reasons at (b) to (e) are concerned this will be permitted generally under the following conditions:—

(i) The place in the factory where duty-paid goods are to be stored should be duly declared and approved by the Superintendent.

(ii) The storage place should be separate and distinct from the place forming the main factory and approved rooms for non-duty paid goods.

(iii) Movement of goods after payment of duty from the bonded storeroom to the approved duty paid storage within the licensed factory should take place under the supervision of the factory officer, no gate pass being necessary for the purposes.

(iv) The manufacturer must keep an account of all the receipts, issues and balance of duty paid goods in the appended form. Separate account for the goods stored for each specified purpose namely retail sale, complimentary gifts, or on account of non-availability of facilities of transport etc., should be maintained. This account shall be open to inspection by any Central Excise officer.

(v) The account will be checked by the factory officer during his regular visits to the factory and at the end of each month stocks be physically verified by the percentage weighment with the book balance and certified correct by the factory officer under the dated initials.

(vi) All issues from the duty paid premises would take place under gate passes prescribed under Rule 52-A of the Central Excise Rules 1944.

4. Duty paid Vegetable Non-essential oils will be allowed to be brought in Vegetable Product Factory for refining and/or manufacture of Vegetable product without restrictions in case of factories which produce Vegetable non-essential oils by crushing seeds in their premises and refined and/or manufactured Vegetable product. In case of other excisable goods storage of duty paid goods in licensed premises shall not be allowed for more than one month, if they are allowed to be brought for processing, repairing etc. and return. Where the dutypaid goods are brought back into the factory due to closure of railway booking etc. the storage of such goods within the licensed premises shall not be allowed for more than two weeks. Where extension is necessary the Assistant Collector may grant it under special circumstances for a period not exceeding three months and thereafter the Collector's permission sought for.

5. In order to satisfy the officers regarding the genuineness of transactions particularly in the cases covered by para 2(iii) above the licensee, wherever necessary should make available to them the correspondence with the buyers regarding the rejection of such goods so that apart from the marking etc. available on the containers other collateral evidence available in the correspondence may also be taken into consideration.

6. The entry of duty paid goods mentioned in sub-paras (a) to (e) of para 1. will be allowed by the following officers:—

(a) & (b) By Superintendent

(c) By Factory Officer.

(d) & (e) By Asstt. Collector.

An account of receipts and issues of duty paid goods stored in the factory.
